This, the fifth of this year's Sigmar's Exodus's Almanacs, details the Pilgrim's Temple in Ahlenhof. As always, all the pre-planned Festag Sermons are included, with the weekends marked in red. The Prigrim's Temple is famed for focussing upon Sigmar's Life while He Still Walked Amongst Us, and only dedicates one Festag a year to events outwith this remit (typically upon the first Holiday after Sigmarday); although, the temple also holds evening services every Konigstag covering other matters. Of particular note is Visitingday on 13th Jahrdrung. The temple believes this is the day Sigmar last passed the site where the Temple now stands, and there is a great deal of celebration in the local area to commemorate the event. Also of note is the weekly "Aubentag Muster"—which starts at the fifth afternoon bell and lasts for two hours—where the priests train the local militia and Hammer Bearers in combat techniques.
